ANNOUNCEMENTS

Upgrade of Polycom Phones

Nex-Tech is updating the firmware on the Polycom Phones. You may have noticed that there is an icon with a red exclamation mark on the screen of your phone. This is a warning that if you are going to use the usb ports on the phone you should not be charging cell phones or tablets. It is still okay charge your Bluetooth Headsets or have a thumb drive for call recording or pictures plugged in.

To clear the error, press the icon; it will give you an explanation for why it is on. Then press "clear icon" and the home button.

Smoky Hill Chorale - SPRING 2020

REHEARSALS BEGIN MONDAY, February 10, 2020
7:30-9:30pm MALLOY HALL, Rm 115 FHSU CAMPUS

Smoky Hill Chorale is a mixed ensemble of post-high school adults...open to all singers.
Openings are in all sections...a particular need is for male voices.
Singing experience is necessary, but no audition is required.

For more information, contact: Dr. Terry Crull at 628-4258; tacrull@fhsu.edu

Be the Match Volunteers

The Student Health Center will be helping to sponsor a Be the Match bone marrow donor drive on February 6, 2020 at the FHSU basketball games. We will need many volunteers to help this event run smoothly.

If you are interested in helping, you can call Student Health at 785-628-4293 or email Amanda at armccord@fhsu.edu. This will be a great way to get service hours for organizations while helping the community.

Interested in Crowdfunding? Have a project or idea that you'd like to bring to life?

"I Fed The Tiger" provides an opportunity for students, faculty and/or staff to make a difference in the areas of Fort Hays State that they're most passionate about.

How does "I Fed The Tiger" work?

- If selected, the FHSU Foundation would help in establishing a fundraising page for your particular project with a specific funding goal and project completion timeline.
- You would be encouraged to share the project fundraising page with your own community and social media networks. Others who would be impacted by the project would be encouraged to do the same.
- The more you spread the word about your fundraising project, the more supporters are encouraged to contribute to the project financially.

If you have an idea for a fundraising page, please visit ifedthetiger.com and click "apply" in the upper right corner or contact Schuyler Coates at smcoates@fhsu.edu or 5692.

VIP Ambassador Program Seeking Candidates for 2020-21

Do you know any students that are looking for a meaningful way to get involved at FHSU? Through the VIP Ambassador program, they'll have opportunities to represent the university while building leadership, communication and networking skills that will help them succeed now and in the future.

VIP Ambassadors are a prestigious group of student leaders chosen to represent FHSU at official campus events, under the direction of the Fort Hays State University Office of the President. Only 20 - 25 students are selected each year to participate in this remarkable program. Applications are accepted each Spring for the following academic year.

Each applicant must be a full-time undergraduate student and have completed at least one semester at FHSU or another post-secondary institution prior to the application year. Graduate students and students graduating in December are not eligible. Additionally, applicants must maintain a 2.5 cumulative GPA or higher and participate in a minimum of 10 events throughout the year.

Students interested in learning more are invited to join current VIP Ambassadors for a free meal and information session on Sunday, Feb. 9 at 6 p.m. in the Stouffer Lounge, Memorial Union. To register for the dinner, please email RoJene Broeckelman at rbroecke@fhsu.edu by February 5th.

Applications for the 2020-21 academic year will be accepted beginning Monday, February 3. Go to www.fhsu.edu/vip for the short application. The interview schedule fills up quickly, so students should apply early for the best selection of times.

For more information, call Janette Meis, VIP Ambassador Advisor at 785-628-4577 or j\_meis@fhsu.edu.

Join Us for a Mysterious Valentine's Date

Valentine's Day is right around the corner. You can avoid crowds and waiting at restaurants with tickets to a murder mystery dinner. The Criminal Justice Club is selling tickets to Death in Paradise, scheduled for Saturday, February 15, at The Venue in Thirsty's Brew Pub & Grill.

The dinner cruise themed semi-formal event features a social hour with bar, beginning at 6:00pm and available throughout the evening, and dinner at 7:00pm, followed by an interactive murder mystery. Individual tickets are $50 and couples' tickets are 2/$85. The ticket price includes admission, two drink tickets per person, dinner, dessert, and entertainment.

All proceeds will offset costs for Criminal Justice Club members to travel to Kansas City in March attend the national American Criminal Justice Association meeting and competition. Please keep us in mind as you think of a unique way to celebrate Valentine's Day, or simply for an enjoyable night out. Please also feel free to share this information with students, family, and friends.

Tickets can be purchased in the Criminal Justice Department in Rarick 233 or at Thirsty's Brew Pub & Grill. We are also happy to deliver tickets in the local area. We accept cash and checks (made payable to "Criminal Justice Club"). Contact Tamara Lynn (tjlynn@fhsu.edu) with questions or to request tickets.

We hope to see you there. Thank you for your support!

FHSU's 2nd Annual SoupFest Cook-Off

It's time to plan the 2nd Annual SoupFest Cook-Off to support the United Way of Ellis County. This year's event will be on Monday, February 17th, 11 am - 1 pm in the Memorial Union, Black and Gold.

Soup Makers.... We are looking for soup experts who would like to showcase their soup making skills in a friendly competition. You can form a team or enter individually. Participants will provide a large crockpot or roaster of their favorite soup along with the recipe to be shared with the attendees. If you wish to participate, please email Janette Meis at j\_meis@fhsu.edu by February 7th.

Bragging rights.... The winner (s) of this challenge will not only receive the traveling trophy but will also have their soup featured the following week in the McMIndes Dining Hall and in the Union Tiger Market.

Soup Connoisseurs.... All of campus is invited to attend this event and sample a wide variety of soups. For a free will donation, you will be given 5 tickets to vote for your favorite soup. All other attendees will receive 1 ticket. The soup with the most tickets at the end of the event will be the winner. All money raised will go to the United Way of Ellis County.

Please mark your calendars and plan to attend this “souper” duper event!

Applications Now Open for the $500 Lynn Haggard Undergraduate Library Research Award

Forsyth Library is now accepting applications for the Lynn Haggard Undergraduate Library Research Award. This $500 cash award recognizes undergraduate research conducted from Spring 2019-Spring 2020 that incorporates the use of Forsyth Library resources and demonstrates exemplary information literacy and research skills.

On-campus, virtual, and international students are eligible and may apply by submitting projects such as undergraduate research papers, digital projects, videos, posters, compositions, and/or design portfolios and writing a short reflective essay describing their use of library tools and resources in their project. A letter of support from a faculty mentor will also be required for the application, confirming the project was completed in conjunction with an FHSU class or scholarly activity, and that it meets discipline standards. Applications are now open and will be accepted until March 31, 2020.

The winner of the Lynn Haggard Undergraduate Research Award will be announced in May 2020. The student will receive a cash prize of $500 and will have their work featured in the FHSU Scholars Repository. Please watch for student work that exemplifies successful library research and encourage them to apply. Application details and additional information about the award can be found at: <https://fhsuguides.fhsu.edu/lhulra>.

If you have questions about the award or the application process, please email lhulra@fhsu.edu.

Cost of Poverty Experience (COPE)

The FHSU Center for Civic Leadership, along with several FHSU and community partners, invites you to join us for a Cost of Poverty Experience (COPE) on February 12 from 6-8pm at the FHSU Ballroom in the Memorial Union. COPE is a live poverty simulation which has proven to be a powerful experience for many as they seek to better empathize with and understand what a life in poverty can be like. COPE is FREE but registration is required and is open to the first 120 who sign-up. Participants will be placed into “family groups” and work together to survive a “month” in poverty. The simulation will last one hour followed by an hour long debrief facilitated by a trained COPE facilitator. The goals are to develop empathy, compassion, understanding, and awareness around what a life in poverty is truly like. There will also be an emphasis on “next steps” and getting involved in our community in meaningful ways. Agencies such as First Call for Help, Saint Francis Community Services, CarePortal, and the FHSU Center for Civic Leadership will have tables set-up for attendees to interact with once the event concludes. Certificates of Attendance will be available to all. Please contact Jessica Albin at jkalbin@fhsu.edu with any questions!

To register, please go to www.eventbrite.com, search “COPE Hays” and enter your full name plus email address.

If you'd like more information, here is a link to a quick video on the event: <https://goproject.org/cope-the-cost-of-poverty-experience/>

“Hope in the Heartland”

Saturday, February 8; 10:00am-2:00pm
Memorial Union Ballroom

High Plains Mental Health Center will host a special event, “Hope in the Heartland,” to highlight mental health awareness, farm stress, public policy and challenges facing the agribusiness industry. The event is sponsored by the Robert E. and Patricia A. Schmidt Family Foundation, and will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 8, in the Fort Hays State University Memorial Union Ballroom. There is no cost to attend and all are welcome. However, to reserve a meal for the lunch session, guests must RSVP to kaley.conner@hpmhc.com by Jan. 24. Guest speakers will include Chuck Ingoglia, CEO of the National Council for Behavioral Health, based in Washington, DC. Chuck will provide an update on public policy and discuss the importance of reducing the stigma around mental illness. Kimberly Nelson, regional administrator with the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, will discuss farm and rural behavioral health policy considerations. Mykel Taylor, an associate professor of agricultural economics at Kansas State University, will provide an overview of the current agriculture economy in rural Kansas. There also will be panel discussions featuring Northwest Kansas legislators, agriculture experts, local farm families, and more. The event is intended to de-stigmatize mental illness and increase public awareness about warning signs, stress management and increased challenges facing many in rural Kansas.

If you have further questions, please don't hesitate to contact myself or Kaley Conner (High Plains MHC). Thank you!

Be well.

Encore Series Volunteers Needed!

The Encore Series is an eight-show performing arts series that takes place on the Fort Hays State University campus in the Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center. These shows bring nationally and internationally touring professional groups to our campus and community. To support the series, each year we search for volunteers to assist us by helping receive tickets at the doors and assist attendees with finding their seats.

To sign up for a volunteer position, simply login to TigerLink and find the form “2020 Encore Volunteer Form” on the Student Engagement page or click on the link provided:

<https://tigerlink.fhsu.edu/submitter/form/start/374179>. This is a great opportunity to receive service hours for an organization or individually.

Volunteers will be expected to work all shows that they signed up for. Please review the information provided on the TigerLink Form before submitting. At each show you volunteer for you or your organization will be expected to arrive at 6:30 PM. It is important to understand that you are the primary contact and you are responsible for making sure the registered volunteers for your organization and/or yourself are on time for the selected performance.

- Tuesday, February 11, 2020 – Fiesta Folclorico!
- Friday, March 13, 2020 – The Huntertones
- Wednesday, April 15, 2020 – Bandstand
- Tuesday, May 5, 2020 – Anne of Green Gables

Above are the listed performances for this Spring Semester, and you can sign up to work just one, or multiple shows. I look forward to working with you! Please let me know if you have any questions.
